Reflection Questions

-How do you personally separate out what belongs to Caesar and what belongs to God? Share with someone else and ask what it looks like for them.

-What is your emotional foundation right now as you look ahead to Tuesday and beyond? Fear? Confidence? Hope? Anger? Joy? What prayer do you need to assure you are centered in Christ and giving to God what is God's?

Going On In The Life Of St. John's

New Members Class

TODAY at 2:00 pm

If you are interested in becoming a member of St. John's or would just like to know more about our history and beliefs, then this is the class for you! We will talk about what it means to be a member of St. John's and all the things we stand for and do in the life of the church. Please let Pastor Matt or Mary Ellen Kendrick know that you would like to attend.

Charge Conference:

Saturday November 16th, at 11:00 am.

We will be holding our annual Charge Conference on Saturday, November 16th, at 11:00 am in the Gathering Room. We will be joined by our district Superintendent for this yearly gathering to celebrate what we've accomplished over the previous year, vote on nominations for our committees, set the pastor's salary, and look ahead to the year to come. Hope you can make it.

Choose Kindness

From Lane and Kristy Krahl

We were in a campground in Bloomfield the weekend of the big rains. The rain and hail poured down Saturday night, and we woke to find a small lake in front of our trailer, and at the bottom of the lake was clay. There was no way we were going to be able to hook up and pull the trailer out of there. The campground owner came by and, after assessing the situation, he noted that behind the trailer was firm ground. He said, "give me a minute," and off he went. He returned with several relatives, and four of us were able to lift the tongue of the trailer and turn it around so that we could hook up and get back to Santa Fe. Truly, this was the kindness of strangers.

St. John's Tin Crafters

An enthusiastic group of tin crafters worked last year to provide tin ornaments for the church Christmas tree. After hearing positive comments from participants who expressed interest in doing more, a new group of tin crafters is being formed. Anyone interested should contact Tom Whitson at 505-629-5770 or tdwhitson@tritel.net. The first meeting of the group will be on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 on November 3. In addition to Christmas ornaments, other holiday ornaments and even activities for the Pumpkin Patch are possible ideas. Come join us and bring your creative ideas to share.

A Huge Thanks!

Thank you so much to everyone helped make the Pumpkin Patch a great success! This experience is the beginning of fall for many is the Santa Fe community and has been for several decades. Families, homes and businesses look forward to their visit to the Pumpkin Patch. This excitement translates to important funds for the missions of St. John's. Thank you to all the workers and shoppers. Way to go St. John's!
